

Party & Auction for Aaron Allston Donation Fund

Central Texas resident Aaron Allston is a New York Times best-selling author of science fiction and fantasy novels, including many Star Wars novels in the series 'X-Wing,' 'New Jedi Order,' 'Legacy of the Force' and 'Fate of the Jedi.' He designs role-playing games. He is an independent filmmaker. He is also, like one in six Americans (and an even larger percentage of writers & artists), without health insurance.

Because of this, his recent heart attack has hit him hard financially. A quadruple bypass is not a cheap thing. Nor are the physical therapy and medications required to recover from something like this.

Aaron is doing what he can -- working hard on rehab and writing with more energy than ever. "Among other things, I went into the hospital with only one chapter of Five For Frankenstein done and came out with about 80% of the novel outlined."

Aaron's friends and fans are banding together in Austin and elsewhere to support him. Please join us to help a writer in need, and to have an all-around good time with other lovers of science fiction, fantasy, and Austin weirdness. If you can't come and want to help, you can donate by sending a check payable to Aaron Allston Donation Fund to: Aaron Allston, Attn: AADF, P0 Box 564, Round Rock, TX 78680-0564.
